

Aamer Hayat, JD

Aamer Hayat, JD, completed his BA at UCLA and obtained his JD from Northwestern University School of Law in Chicago, IL. Aamer started his professional career with Deloitte & Touche. At Deloitte, Aamer began to develop his management skills by helping Deloitte launch and grow their U.S. practice in Hyderabad, India. In 2009, catching the entrepreneurial bug, Aamer joined his late sister, Dr. Unaiza Hayat, to open a unique health & wellness practice in Fresno, CA. That is where Aamer found his passion and purpose – working with physicians and healthcare professionals to develop and deliver on best practices to enhance patient care and improve organizational outcomes.

After gaining experience and expertise in the hospital and insurance space, Aamer joined Northern California Retina Vitreous Associates in July of 2020 as their Chief Administrative Officer.

In his free time, Aamer enjoys travelling, going for scenic drives, good food and anything related to Batman and other superheroes.
