

Amanda Turner, COE, OCSR

Amanda Turner, COE, OCSR, is a seasoned healthcare leader with over 11 years of dedicated service in her retina practice. Currently serving as Director of Operations at Austin Retina Associates, Amanda oversees daily operations across multiple clinic locations, focusing on optimizing workflows and fostering a culture of excellence. Her leadership has been pivotal in driving operational efficiencies, enhancing patient satisfaction, and implementing innovative solutions to meet evolving healthcare demands.

Amanda's commitment to operational excellence and team collaboration has consistently yielded measurable improvements in organizational performance and patient outcomes. Known for her dedication to quality care and continuous improvement, Amanda is passionate about advancing leadership in ophthalmology and empowering teams to deliver exceptional patient experiences.