

Scott Walter, MD, MSc, FASRS

Scott Walter, MD, MSc, FASRS, is a vitreoretinal surgeon and ocular oncologist at Retina Consultants, P.C. in Hartford, Connecticut. He completed his vitreoretinal fellowship training at the Duke University Eye Center and his residency and oncology training at the Bascom Palmer Eye Institute. In addition to being a partner/VP at Retina Consultants, he serves as vice chief of ophthalmology at Hartford Hospital, and assistant clinical professor of surgery at the University of Connecticut School of Medicine. As a member of the ASRS, Dr. Walter serves on the ad hoc committee for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, an author for the Preferences and Trends (PAT) Survey, and a reporter for Clinical Updates from the Field. He also serves on executive committees for the Connecticut Society of Eye Physicians, Connecticut State Medical Society, and the Rocky Hill Surgery Center.